Criteria of making payments to Non- Executive Directors

- § Overall remuneration should be reflective of the Company's size, complexity of the sector/ industry/ company's operations and the company's capacity to pay remuneration.
- § Independent Directors ("ID") and Non-Independent Non-Executive Directors ("NED") may be paid sitting fees (for attending the meetings of the Board and of the Committees of which they may be members) within regulatory limits. Quantum of sitting fees may be subject to review on a periodic basis, as required.
- § Within the parameters prescribed by law, the payment of sitting fees will be as recommended by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and approved by the Board.
- § Overall remuneration should be reasonable and sufficient to attract, retain and motivate Directors aligned to the requirements of the Company (taking into consideration the challenges faced by the Company and its future growth imperatives).
- § Overall remuneration practices should be consistent with recognized best practices.
- § In addition to the sitting fees, the Company may pay to any Director such fair and reasonable expenditure, as may have been incurred by the Director while performing his/her role as a Director of the Company. This could include reasonable expenditure incurred by the Director for attending Board/Board committee meetings, general meetings, court convened meetings, meetings with shareholders/creditors/ management, site visits, induction and training (organised by the Company for Directors) and in obtaining professional advice from independent advisors in the furtherance of his/her duties as a director.
